

Update: Social Justice: It was good to take break from the soup lunch on December 18th and join almost 20 others from Westminster Justice and Peace, Catholic Worker and beyond the diocese for the monthly vigil outside the Home Office, prayers and hymns were recited and the names of scores of Asylum Seekers who perished in the Mediterranean and English Channel a year ago were read out.

The Bread and Soup lunches have resumed after a short break. I have submitted an application to Caritas for funding towards the extra costs of heating the hall during the winter months.

Peace Sunday is upon us, January 14th as you may have seen the Pope invites us to consider "Artificial Intelligence and Peace" as our theme.

The Lent Family Fast Day falls on Friday 23rd February
