EVANGELII GAUDIUM: Joy of the Gospel

Pope Francis has declared today as “Evangelii Gaudium” Sunday: a day on which we particularly celebrated the importance of God’s word for the Church and for the world.

“We cannot forget that evangelisation is first and foremost about preaching the Gospel to those who do not know Jesus Christ or who have always rejected him. Many of these are quietly seeking God, led by a yearning to see his face... Christians have the duty to proclaim the Gospel without excluding anyone. “

Pope Francis calls on the Church to embark on a fundamental change of direction when it comes to evangelisation, no longer relying on past structures and actions but to read the signs of the times and act passionately in proclaiming the unique message of the Gospel that brings joy to all people who receive it with an open heart.

He says: “I dream of a ‘missionary option’, that is, a missionary impulse capable of transforming everything, so that the Church’s customs, ways of doing things, times and schedules, language and structures can be suitably channeled for the evangelisation of today’s world rather than for her self-preservation.” EG, §27

There is a retiring collection today support the diocese’ work in evangelisation. A range of resources are being prepared for the Year of Prayer in 2024 and the Jubilee year in 2025. Resources include a course on the Lord’s Prayer for small groups during Lent, which aim to encourage different ways of praying. The Mission Directorate will be supporting the Jubilee co-ordinator appointed by each diocese. Thank you for your generosity.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy.
