EASTER MESSAGE

Every year various Easter Messages are given by the pope and other religious leaders. In a sense there is no new message to give, other than to repeat the one that is always given at this time of the year. It is the most remarkable and constant of messages. It sums up the great hope for all humanity and in doing so demonstrates what our glorious destiny will be. It shows us that God loves us beyond all measure, that He would allow his Son to go through the most horrible suffering for us. Emerging from our period of Lenten penance, we rejoice in the Greatest Message of all time, the message of the centuries:

Jesus Christ is Risen Alleluia."

May you and your family have a most holy and blessed Easter at this time of joy!
