Saint Mellitus

A Parish of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Westminster

Year C 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 3rd July 2022

A life so beautifully lived deserves to be beautifully remembered

In today's Gospel, seventy-two people are sent by Jesus to proclaim the Kingdom of God. Can you imagine what the disciples would have felt? A mixture of enthusiasm for the new mission and a fear of the unknown. We all have had similar feelings in our hearts when tasked with something we haven't done before. We might be full of joy because we have been chosen to do something special, but at the same time we might be scared of leaving the familiar behind.

This week, we remember our parishioner Bruce Kent whose funeral takes place in our church on Monday 4th July at 11am. We thank God for all the wonderful things God has done through Bruce. Bruce's life was beautifully lived and deserves to be beautifully remembered. Bruce was an active member of our parish community and also the founder member of St Mellitus Justice and Peace Group. He was a campaigner of love in action expressed through justice and peace. His life serves as an inspiration for us all, both on global and local levels. We love Bruce deep down in our hearts and we will miss him so much. All of our hearts go out to Valerie his wife. Please be assured of our prayers during this challenging time. May his soul rest in peace. Amen.

Local Muslim communities message for Bruce: 'Bruce will be greatly missed by the whole local area as he related so well to every one, from every background, and valued the work of all Faith communities. We appreciated his presence at Community Safety meetings, at Iftars and at moments of sadness as well as of celebration in our mosques. We experience his passing at a personal level but also feel that Bruce's death is a very significant community loss in our boroughs.'

SICK & HOUSEBOUND: Clergy and other ministers of Holy Communion are able and willing to visit those who are housebound. Please contact the parish office if in need. Thank you

BAPTISMS: To book a Baptism for your child please speak to Fr. Chinedu or contact the parish office tollingtonpark@rcdow.org.uk
