Letter from Langdon Street

My dear people

When I was parish priest in Northolt, the nearby airport contained the Polish War Memorial erected in memory of the Polish airmen who sacrificed their lives during World War II. You can therefore understand my feeling of repugnance when I heard of the damage done to the Polish Centre in Hammersmith following the Referendum just over a week ago. Cardinal Nichols has issued the following statement on behalf of the bishops of England and Wales:

We all need to reflect on what has been a tumultuous few days and ponder what is needed now. Firstly, I am very conscious of the Polish community in Hammersmith and of people confronted by banners in Newcastle. This upsurge of racism, of hatred towards others is something we must not tolerate. We have to say this is simply not acceptable in a humane society and it should never be provoked or promoted. Racism and hatred must never be tolerated, but there is no need for fear.

We always place our lives at the foot of the cross; in the hands of Jesus. We have an important job in defining the horizon against which we live and that is where the profound values we seek to embody really come to life: when we see ourselves living in the presence of God, living with that transcendent horizon. If that transcendent dimension is simply put to one side, if there is no space to see ourselves under the providence of God and living consciously in the presence of God, then society closes in on itself and becomes much more self-centred and much more divided. I am sure that every leader needs to reflect on our failure to listen and to give voice to those who feel voiceless.

We need to grasp again our basic sense of purpose; in living together, creating together and fashioning a society. It is that sense of purpose that we may have lost focus of; believing that the purpose of politics is to manipulate power; the purpose of business is simply to make profit for a few. This challenge has been with us for a while now. Our purpose must be our common good, the good of all with no one excluded. Our politicians have to deal with their issues, businessmen and banks with their issues, but the fundamental purpose is to build a world in which strength is used for service and no one is excluded.

The great challenge for those leading the nation now is to speak for everyone. If a victory in a referendum remains a point of division, then we become weaker and weaker as a nation and not play a part in the international scene tackling the world's problems, which are great and challenging.

I am sure many of us have been moved by the series of memorial ceremonies that mark 100 years since the battle of the Somme which began on 1 July 1916. It is frightening to think that 20,000 British and other allied servicemen died on that first day of battle. This is just over the total number of people today who live in Tring and the villages. Our prayers at mass today will remember them and also the 40,000 who were injured.

Yours sincerely

Parish Priest

OUR GREAT PARISH SUMMER PARTY

Our party is in two weeks' time. It is for everybody, old and young and everyone in between. We hope you will join us on Sunday 17 July, after the 10.30 mass. We have ordered a hog roast. We will be looking for salads, puddings and a cheese board. Drinks will be provided.

The party is for everyone but we want to arrange special activities for the children, such as face painting and games.

The party will also be an occasion to say goodbye to Dan Marsh who has finished his university course and will be leaving us to take up a full time job at the Swan Youth Centre in Berkhamsted.

This will be a great way of getting together before the holidays start and also give Dan a memorable Farewell Party. We need volunteers to help. At the back of the church there will be a sheet to add your name etc. If you would like to help, please join the working party which will meet in the hall after 10.30 mass next Sunday. You may also contact Annabelle Halliday on 07736669019 or annabelle\_halliday@hotmail.com

There will be a special collection next Sunday.

SPONSORED WALK

Kate Andrew, her daughters India and Jessica and her sister Liz are doing the Glo4Flo sponsored night walk in Aylesbury in pink t-shirts and flashing bunny ears on 9 July in memory of Terry, who died in February. The Florence Nightingale Hospice at Stoke Mandeville Hospital provided wonderful care and was so welcoming. They are so grateful and want to raise some more money for them and would be thrilled if you can support them.

They have a make-a-donation.org page - search for Andrew Bluebelles and click on Glo4Flo. and a Just Giving page - search for Kate Andrew.
