FIRST READING: Exodus 17:8-13 – As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage in a battle against the Amalekites.

Responsorial Psalm: – 120

Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven & earth.

Second Reading: 11 Timothy 3:14 – 4.2

Scripture is inspired by God and can therefore be used for teaching people to be holy. Your duty is to proclaim the message – with patience and the intention of teaching.

Gospel: Luke 18:1-8 – Parable of the judge and the persistent widow. God will see justice done to his chosen who cry to him – but when the Son of Man comes, will he find any on earth?

About the Month of November

The Month of November is the time every year when we pray for the souls of our loved ones, friends and benefactors. I am sure like me you are not able to say that you have perfectly loved God and your neighbour throughout your life, and that you will be ready at the moment of death to be with God forever in eternity.

If for one would want sometime to prepare for that encounter with perfect love. To atone for my sins and say I am sorry. Unless you are a living saint, the majority of us will need this time in purgatory. We the church on earth can help these Holy Souls by praying for them and especially the offering of Mass. Too often today we hear at funerals "he or she is now in heaven" we are unable to make this statement, as most individuals have secrets in their lives that nobody knows about. The Church asks us to pray for our loved ones during the month of November, every week in this church three Masses will be offered for the names on our November list. If you wish your loved ones, family and friends to be included in these Masses, please take home a November Dead List Envelope and return it to the church with their names & your offering.

God Bless,

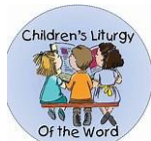

Father Sean.
