CHRIST HAS RISEN! ALLELUIA!

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to begin by wishing you all A Happy Easter as we celebrate the Resurrection of Our Saviour Jesus Christ. Over the last few days we have travelled with our Lord through some of the momentous events of His earthly life.

On Holy Thursday we recall Our Lord showing us how we should serve one another and He did this by the example of washing the feet of His disciples, who were horrified that their Lord and Master would get on His hands and knees to wash the dust and dirt from their feet.

As Christians we are called to serve and it is a service not of grudging duty but a service of love which is freely given. We also witnessed our Lord instituting the Priesthood and when the Supper was ended giving us his Body & Blood in the Holy Eucharist for the first time.

On Good Friday we saw the depth of God's love for fallen humanity when Christ, after being unjustly condemned to death, embraced the Cross and took upon Himself the injustice, the cruelty, the hatred, and the sins of man's violent history of mankind. Each of us came forward to kiss those wounds of love which the nails had made in Ou Lord's body, each carrying his or her burden of sin. It is on Good Friday that we truly experience the depth of God's love for us and we see beyond the tortured figure of Christ to a symbol that represents pure love.

At the Easter Vigil and Sunday morning, along with the Church throughout the world, the most important day in the Church's year is celebrated, after three days in the tomb Christ raises Body & Soul from the dead. This was not a symbolic event but reality. Not to believe in the physical resurrection of Our Lord's body from the dead is to cease to be a Christian. For without the Resurrection, Christ and His teaching would be pointless.

The Feast of Easter is so important that it is given an Octave, which means that we celebrate Easter Day for 8 consecutive days. As Catholics we understand what it means to celebrate, this is not just done in Church but in our homes.

Wishing you and your families a Joyful and Holy Celebration of this great Solemnity.

May the Risen Lord Bless you and continue to deepen your faith in His Resurrection which we celebrate today.

With my love and prayers.

Father Sean.

CHRISTUS RESURREXIT!

Late afternoon.

Crucifixion complete.

Body removed,

anointed, wrapped

in linen cloth.

Friends to collect.

Three days later. Early morning. Hillside garden.

Woman searching for tomb

bumps into gardener.

He speaks. She listens.

Not knowing he is her Lord

risen from the dead.

Risen from the dead?

Risen from the dead!

At once, Peter understood.

John the Beloved, believed.

Ran to see for himself.

Peter followed, falteringly

towards rock-hewn cave.

Greeted by Angels.

He is Risen!

He is Risen!

He is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia
