Dear Friends,

In the early hours of Wednesday morning someone broke through the large arched window in the office causing a great deal of damage to the window which will have to be replaced. From the office they stole very little as we think it seemed that they were only after cash. They went through both mine and Annabelle's desk but found nothing. Then they came across my personal safe, very large, very old and a very heavy one. Somehow, they managed to push this through the broken window and then finding it too heavy to lift to their car, they removed one of the bollards that had been cemented to the ground in order to drive their car over the grass to the window. It is believed that they probably thought that it was the Parish safe, which they hoped would contain cash.

Thankfully our CCTV system recorded both culprits giving off a clear facial shot of one of them, which we hope will help the police to find and arrest these criminals.

This Friday afternoon the police telephoned me that they had recovered the safe which was found in the woods outside Aldbury, broken open and papers scattered all around. Luckily, they were only personal papers and nothing of any value, except for some Euros.

Thank goodness for our CCTV, I clearly hope the footage captured will help the police in their investigation.

For Insurance purposes I must have a list of anyone who holds a key to the parish's property, please let me or Annabelle know the keys that you have and which doors they open. It might be a master key that opens all doors or a key that opens a single door.

Would you also state the reason why it is necessary for you to have a key?

God Bless Fr. Sean.

Children's liturgy will be held in the hall during the Sunday 9 am Mass.

The children enjoy listening to a reading, having a discussion and doing a related art or craft activity. We follow the Liturgy of the word for children which is age-appropriate and engaging. We go from the church to the hall the beginning of mass and return for the offertory. Suitable for all ages up to eight years old.
