FAITH IN ACTION

Our readings today shine a helpful light upon discipleship, and the important distinction between words and actions, reminding us that deeds do count in our lives of faith.

The 1st Reading from the Prophet Ezekiel and the Gospel parable refer to the same essential movement of a change of heart. Today's Psalm also points us towards the God of mercy, one who does not 'remember the sins of our youth' and who comes to us with love and forgiveness.

Jesus is very good at turning things upside-down. He says that it is the sinner who truly repents, rather than the pious person whose actions do not match their words, who will be the first to make their way into the kingdom of God.

Jesus wants us to follow through with our promises. Discipleship is not about lip-service; actions speak louder than words.

This weekend someone will speak to us about CAFOD and how they want children like Tayla stay in school. CAFOD wants us to build a better world for all our neighbours. They ask us to turn our faith into action this harvest and give children like Tayla in Zimbabwe the water and nutritious food they need to learn.

Living God who sent your only son to walk among us, to teach, heal and nourish us, we sing a song of your praise and thank you for your gifts.

Grant that we may draw closer to you through our prayer and our fasting, opening our eyes to the needs of our bruised and broken world.

Lead us to hunger and thirst for a better world where, we put our faith into action and seek to love our neighbour so that all your children may flourish. Amen
