FORGIVE

Jesus surprised Peter in today's Gospel by telling him he needed to forgive seventy-seven times. He wanted his disciples to relate to people based on love.

Repeatedly Jesus urged his disciples to forgive. God is always ready to forgive as we pray everyday in the 'Our Father'.

Forgiveness doesn't mean forgetting or excusing the harm done to us. It also doesn't necessarily mean making up with the person who has hurt us. But forgiveness can bring a kind of peace that allows us to focus on ourselves and helps us to go on with life.

Letting go of hurts can make way for improved health, peace of mind and well-being, such as:

- Healthier relationships
- Improved mental health
- Less anxiety, stress and hostility
- Fewer symptoms of depression
- Lower blood pressure
- Improved self-esteem

Jesus wants to introduce the teachings of today's parable, into the 'Our Father'. He links the forgiveness which we ask from God with the forgiveness that we should offer our brothers and sisters.

God is full of love for us, and he wants us to open our hearts so that we can show love to others.

On Tuesday last the 8th of September we celebrated the birth of Mary The Immaculate Conception

May Mary help us to become even more aware of the gratuitousness and the greatness of the forgiveness we receive from God, to become merciful like Him who is slow to anger and great in love.
