GENEROSITY

Some people think that Jesus' story in today's Gospel is an unfair and unjust one. But the story is not about justice. The story is about generosity.

"Do you begrudge my generosity?" This is no ordinary generosity. It's about a generosity unlike anything we have ever known. This is God's generosity, echoed in the 1st Reading, 'For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts!' God deals with us in ways that are very different from the way we normally deal with one another. The goodness of God is a great comfort to us.

Our faith is a call addressed to the heart and once God has touched our hearts and warmed them with his love, we will begin to love in return, and then we will truly know what God is like.

Lord, open our minds
and enlarge our hearts
so that we think more like you.
Let us not begrudge your goodness to others,
knowing that we too are undeserving
of your favours, and stand
in need of your mercy and love. Amen

FR. JOHN
