Volunteering Opportunity for Young Catholics (18–34)

Caritas Westminster, in partnership with the Irish Chaplaincy and Anna Chaplaincy, is offering free training in prayerful accompaniment, listening, and pastoral and spiritual care.
The programme includes four sessions (two online and two in person), preparing volunteers to visit older people in care homes, offering companionship and support.
No previous experience or Irish background is required. A wonderful opportunity to put your faith into action and make a difference!
Please register your interest by Friday 6th November. The programme is planned to begin later in November, and those who register will be contacted directly with further details, including training dates.
