THE WEDDING FEAST

'The wedding hall was filled with guests.' I recently read a story about a man who, as a young boy, was left at the back of the class in the 1960's. He had special needs that were not met and ignored. He was made to feel ashamed. After he left primary school the boy was taught to read and write. He went on to college and university. Later he went to live in the US where he found his own publishing company that employed 4,000 people.

All this began when the young boy's shroud of shame was taken away. He was no longer in a place of darkness. He was given a festive wedding garment of recognition and acknowledgement.

Who in your life needs to be shepherded with care and compassion?

What shepherds you through the valley of darkness to restful waters?

Today's beautiful psalm speaks of God as a shepherd, guiding, leading, reviving, comforting and anointing us with goodness and kindness all our days.

St. Paul puts it beautifully in today's 2nd reading, he writes: 'I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through Him who strengthens me'.

Thanks to everyone who brought harvest food to the Church. It was an amazing response. The food has been taken to St. Thomas More School and will be part of their harvest assembly. Following the assembly it will be brought to the food bank. Your contribution is very much appreciated.
