On this All-Saints Day, the Beatitudes challenge us to look beyond the difficulties of this life. They offer us a way of life that leads to eternal life. The Saints whose help we so often seek, embodied many of these qualities in the Beatitudes – gentleness, mercy, fighting for justice, working for peace, bearing suffering with dignity.

Last year 2025, 9 people were canonised as saints. They came from Italy, Papua New Guinea, Armenia, Venezuela, Ecuador, and of course St. Carlo Acutis who was born and baptised in London, before his family returned to Italy.

In our own lives we have known many people who strived to live out the Beatitudes and who may never be canonised, but who have shown us how to live as followers of Jesus.

Today's Feast reminds us that we are not alone on our journey of faith. It is an opportunity to reflect on all the holy women and men who are shining examples of faith for us, when they were alive, and who continue their great work by leading us closer to God.

'To be saints is not a privilege for the few, but a vocation for everyone' (Pope Francis)

THANK YOU

I was so impressed by everyone at last weekend Masses and the way you responded to the appeal for the building of the New Hall. Your generosity is amazing. There was a lovely sense of community togetherness and belonging.

Thank you for all you have given and for all that you do for Corpus Christi Parish. If you were away last weekend, perhaps because of half-term, you are welcome to fill in a form after Mass this weekend. The Chair if Fianance, Paul, will explain the form to you.
