GOOD CITIZENS

St. Matthew in his Gospel today 22:15-21 invites us to strike a balance between our earthly obligations and our spiritual commitments.

It reminds us that while we are citizens of the world our ultimate citizenship is in the Kingdom of God. Our faith should not be confined to the walls of a church but should be lived out in every aspect of our lives.

This means being generous with our time, reaching out to those who need us:

- who are burdened with hardship
- who are burdened with anxiety
- who are burdened with loneliness
- who are burdened with grief
- who are burdened with illness

We live in a world where people are facing uncertainty. We need the peace and joy of God's presence to accompany us on our journey of faith. Jesus in his preaching had a vision of a world of love, peace, justice and compassion. Being followers of Jesus means we should be actively involved in striving for this vision, and this includes whatever political, economic or cultural issues we are confronted with. Although this can be difficult, we should surrender to God in prayer, our sense of difficulty.

Ascribe to the Lord, you families of peoples,
Ascribe to the Lord glory and power,
Ascribe to the Lord the glory of his name'
Bring our offering and enter his courts (Today's Psalm)

Blessing of Graves: Sunday 1st November at 1.00pm in Tring Cemetery

Annual Mass of Remembrance for your deceased family and friends will be celebrated on Saturday 7th November at 5.00pm. Their names will be read out during Mass, and you are welcome to come and light a candle in their memory.
