OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

In today's Gospel Jesus leaves us in no doubt as to what he expects of us. Jesus seems to be saying that he comes to us in a special way through the brokenness, vulnerability, and lowliness of others.

Jesus is identifying himself with the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the sick the 2 groups in the gospel reading were assessed very differently, but each group asked the same question, 'when did we see you hungry …?'

One group was seeing Jesus without realising it, the other group was neglecting Jesus without realising it. We often don't recognise Jesus in the brokenness and suffering of life in others and in our own lives.

Jesus invites us today to be more aware of his presence in weakness, failure, and distress. On the cross Jesus was himself, hungry, thirsty, a stranger, naked and sick. As our Risen King, he now identifies with everyone who is in a similar situation.

O Christ the King
Turn our hearts this day
Not only to the world around us
But to the world within us.
Where your kingdom comes anew
With each act of love we offer,
Each prayer we whisper,
Each breath we draw. Amen
