THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Last Sunday, on the feast of the Epiphany, we heard the familiar story of the magi, who, directed by the star to Bethlehem, find the baby Jesus. Today we hear of the first disciples, who, directed by John the Baptist, encounter the adult Jesus. That initial encounter changes the entire course of their lives, for, as Andrew insists to his brother Simon, "We have found the Messiah." May our encounter with the Lord, here and elsewhere, influence the way we live our lives as well. God calls to us in unexpected ways. For young Samuel, it was his whispered name he heard in the night. Jesus called Saul when he was on his way to persecute Christians in Damascus. Today we hear him, as Paul, speak of our bodies as being temples of the Holy Spirit. In the Gospel, we hear Jesus call two disciples after they had been standing around talking with John the Baptist. As we hear God's word proclaimed, let us listen for what God is saying to us today.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH

Thank you for your last week's Offertory Collection which came to £1,165.53; plus the Regular Standing Orders

COLLECTION TO SUPPORT THE LATIN PATRIARCH OF JERUSALEM

Thank you very much to all those who supported the collection last weekend to support the charities in the West Bank and Gaza who are seeking to support the victims of the violence that is occurring during the conflict. The total came to £577.49. The Patriarch, Cardinal Pizzaballa, is deeply concerned about the impact that the war is having on the Palestinian population in the West Bank, for many of whom sources of income have effectively been ended by the restrictions imposed on them. Copies of a recent Newsletter from the Patriarch are available at the entrances to the Church, and on the Website, in the Newsletter Section.

CRIB OFFERINGS

Our Crib Offerings will be donated, as usual, to The Catholic Children's Society (CCS). They will be used to support local children and families in need. The Society is helping families in crisis who are struggling to put food on the table, keep warm and provide a safe home for their children. You can donate at the Crib, or via the CCS website www.cathchild.org.uk/crib

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

On Saturday from 10.30 – 11.00am and from 5.45pm – 6.15pm.

FUNERAL THIS WEEK

The Funeral Mass for the late Anne Ames will be celebrated on Thursday 18th January at 1.30pm.

THE PARISH MASS INTENTION DIARY

The Mass Intention Diary for Masses to be celebrated here in the Parish is now open for the year.

COME TO TEA!

The Parish Centre is open every Monday afternoon for Afternoon Tea and Biscuits and a chat from 2.00pm to 3.30pm. Everyone is welcome. We even have Orange Squash for those who are too young for tea or coffee!

It is also open on a Wednesday from 1.30pm -3.00pm for Soup and Toast as well as tea, coffee or orange squash. Again, everyone is welcome. There is no need to book, just turn up and enjoy the company.

200 CLUB 2023

Thank you to all those who supported the 200 Club during this past year. £877.00 was given out in prizes and £877.00 was given to the Parish Building Fund. The Application Forms for 2024 are available as you exit the Church. The more people who join, the more is given in prizes. The First Draw will be at the end of January.

CALLING APF RED BOX HOLDERS

If you have not yet collected your envelope from the box at the Main Entrance to the Church, would you please do so. Please empty the contents of your Red Box into the envelope and return it to the Parish Office. The APF is the charity that helps Catholic missionaries to continue to work in countries across the world. We thank you for all the money you give to this important work. If you have any questions, please contact Terry O'Sullivan – thrums55@googlemail.com.

AA MEETINGS

We are a fellowship of men and women, who share our experience strength and hope with each other, that we may solve our common problem, and help others to recover from alcoholism. At our meeting, you will find a variety of people with many different experiences of what their drinking was like and what made them stop. At the heart of it all is the same thing: we didn't want to drink anymore and we realised we couldn't stop on our own many of us had tried that and it didn't work. AA started in 1935 when one sober Alcoholic on a business trip, worried he might start drinking again, called a church to know if they knew of any drunks that might need help getting sober, there he met another man who had been trying to stay sober but couldn't. From that small beginning, AA has become a fellowship of 120.000 groups around the world. Here at St Joseph's, we are one of that number. Normally around 12 people come each week for an hour and a quarter, meeting goes have a varying length of Sobriety, some a few days or months while others have many years, but regardless of our differences we are bound together in our primary purpose of getting sober and helping others do the same. We are grateful for Fr John's support and encouragement of our efforts, as well as allowing us to use the hall at a reasonable rate, it would have been really difficult to hold the meeting otherwise. We are an open meeting, which means anyone interested in finding out more about what Alcoholics Anonymous does is welcome to attend. If you or someone you love is affected by alcoholism, or just beginning to wonder if that's a possibility, you are most welcome to join us Sunday evenings 8.00 - 9:15pm in the small hall.

CAFOD

The Church relies on people getting involved. Our parish, our community, our world needs you. Could your New Year's resolution be getting more involved in the life of our church? Which aspects of church brings you life or joy? Could you give a bit of time to help those parts flourish?

CAFOD, the Catholic Agency for Overseas Development, are looking for people to give some time and join them in their mission. Could you help in our parish, inspiring our church to help build a better world or by visiting our local schools? Or raise a voice and campaign for justice or perhaps speak for CAFOD throughout the area? Could you support local volunteers or share your admin or people skills to help CAFOD keep costs low? Training and support is provided. See cafod.org.uk/Volunteer for more information or get in touch with brozycka@cafod.org.uk Or could you take part in The Big Lent Walk? cafod.org.uk/walk
