FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus knows that our lives are difficult. The mission he left for us is challenging. Additionally, we have dozens of day to day responsibilities and concerns. He's just told his disciples that they must carry their crosses. But he also promises that he will be with us to carry our crosses when we are overwhelmed. Therefore, he is able to assure everyone who labours and is burdened that he will give them rest. His yoke is easy, and his burden light. Gathered here today, let us put our concerns and anxieties in the Lord's hands and allow him to lift our burdens from our shoulders.

SEA SUNDAY

Stella Maris is the largest ship-visiting network in the world, and the official maritime charity of the Catholic Church. Seafarers often have to work away from their families and local communities for nine to 12 months at a time. Across the world, Stella Maris aims to provide a 'friend in every port' and stand alongside seafarers and fishers to ensure their rights are upheld. For 100 years they have been extending the hand of friendship and welcoming seafarers and fishers to our shores. Their network of chaplains and volunteers makes more than 70,000 ship visits each year and supports hundreds of thousands of seafarers and fishermen in times of need. They listen and chat, they arrange Mass on board ships, they offer practical help on a crisis and bring free Wi-Fi onboard so that seafarers can call home. Often, these simplest practical kindnesses make the greatest difference.

Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. Sea Sunday is Sunday 12th July. It is when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Your support will make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need. You can donate in church, by visting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue their important work, so please give generously. There will be a second collection after all the Masses next weekend. Thank you.

PILGRIMAGE IN HONOUR OF ST EDMUND CAMPION

Each year the Relic of St Edmund Campion, one of the Forty Martyrs of England and Wales, are carried to Tyburn, resting overnight at churches on the way. This year the Pilgrimage route includes our Deanery. The Relic will be here in Waltham Cross for the 10.00am Mass on this Thursday. The intention of the Pilgrimage is to pray for Christian Unity and World Peace.

Edmund Campion was born in London in 1540. He was educated at Christ's Hospital and won a scholarship to St John's College, Oxford, He was ordained a Deacon in the Church of England in 1569, but went into exile in the English College in Douai after returning to the Catholic Faith, and was ordained a subdeacon in 1573. He left for Rome the same year and joined the Society of Jesus, and was eventually ordained a Priest in 1578. In 1580 he set out for England to work as a Catholic Priest in London, and the north of England. On November 11th 1581 he was falsely charged with plotting rebellion and he was hanged drawn and quartered at Tyburn on 1st December that year.
