THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As we gather to celebrate the Eucharist let us give God thanks for second chances. All of us fail sometimes, maybe quite often, but this does not mean that we are condemned forever, unable to overcome our faults and past sins. We are constantly invited to repent. seek forgiveness, and change our behaviour. St Paul, who knew a thing or two about doing all this, calls upon us to reject selfishness and instead look out for the interests of others. Let us pray today for a change of heart that will lead us to more closely follow the road to God's kingdom.

WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

For over one hundred years, the Church has marked the World Day of Migrants and Refugees on the last Sunday of September, inviting us to pray for and accompany people who have been forced to leave their homes in search of safety, dignity, and hope. This year, Pope Leo has chosen the theme 'Even just one of these children', inviting the Church and her faithful to pay particular attention to children and young people affected by forced displacement. In his message he reminds us that every refugee child, woman, and man has infinite dignity and that every person deserves to be welcomed. As Christians we are called to respond with love and empathy. For further details of ways in which you can support the work being done in the Diocese please see the Jesuit Refugee Service website at jrs.net.
