CELEBRATING 150 YEARS 1871-2021

FR ANDREW WRITES:

Honouring Sunday and Attendance at Sunday Mass

The bishops of England and Wales have written about the importance of Sunday as The Day of the Lord and of gathering for the celebration of Sunday Mass as the Body of Christ.

An extract from their letter, Honouring Sunday:

The Sunday Eucharist is a gift; as God's holy people we are called to praise and thank God in the most sublime way possible. When the Church speaks of the Sunday obligation, it reminds us that attending Mass is a personal response to the selfless offering of Christ's love.

At this time, we recognise that for some people there may be certain factors which hinder attendance at Sunday Mass. The pandemic is clearly not over. The risk of infection is still present. For some, there is legitimate fear in gathering together. As your bishops, we recognise that these prevailing circumstances suggest that not everyone is yet in the position to fulfil the absolute duty to attend freely Sunday Mass.

We now encourage all Catholics to look again at the patterns which they have formed in recent months with regard to going to Mass on Sundays. This would include consideration and reflection about what we might do on Sundays, such as sports or shopping, or other leisure and social activities. This review, and the decisions which arise from it, fall to every Catholic and we trust this will be done with honesty, motivated by a real love for the Lord whom we encounter in the Mass.

The full letter is available here:

<https://www.cbcew.org.uk/bishops-statement-honouring-sunday/>

I would like to echo these words myself. For those who are vulnerable, it is still perfectly legitimate to refrain from attending Mass in person. Thankfully, livestreaming has proved successful and helpful for many people during this time. That said, it does not supply for the full reality of the Mass and the graces that flow from participating in it. I ask only, for your sake, that you consider your own circumstances.

God bless you all, Fr Andrew.

This Weekend: Sick and Retired Priests' Fund Collection – There are more than 80 sick and retired priests supported by the Fund, and this number is set to double by 2025. Parish priests must offer their resignations at 75, though many continue to serve as long as they are able.
