Wow, what a week we've had at St Teresa's this week!

On Tuesday we paused for a Mental Health Minute organised by our Rights Respecting Group. This was a wonderful opportunity for children to start a discussion about mental health and the importance of looking after not only our own, but thinking about those we can support within our community.

Next week is Children's Mental Health Awareness Week where each class will be taking time to focus on an aspect of this year's theme 'growing together'. Families can also take part in activities at home, please click on the link below for more information and resources.

<https://www.childrensmentalhealthweek.org.uk/>

On Thursday our Faith Ambassadors visited St Albans Cathedral! There they attended the 'God Who Speaks' Scripture Festival. The children were invited into various 'Tents of Encounter' and also attended a talk about social justice. We must say a huge thank you to Salvatorian College for lending us their mini-bus for the event.

On Friday our fabulous Year 1s went on a trip to the Tower of London as part of their topic 'Bright Lights, Big City'. I'm sure they will be suitably exhausted this evening as a result of their busy day!

Year 2B also shared their amazing St Valentine's Day assembly with us on Friday. What a beautiful assembly it was, with such a special message. I particularly enjoyed the lovely song they shared with us at the end which stated the important message, 'love is something when you give it away, you end up having more!' What a lovely thought to begin our weekend with.

Next week we will be holding virtual parents consultation evenings. We will also hold a parent consultation day on Wednesday for our Nursery parents. If you haven't had a chance to book a slot yet, please do. All information can be found on the letter below.

Have a blessed weekend,

Miss Devery and Mrs Kirton

SHARING SUNDAY'S GOSPEL WITH PARENTS & FAMILIES

Dear Parents and Carers,

In this Sunday's Gospel, Peter (after a night of failed fishing) is finally successful and realises his true calling because he listens to and follows Jesus' instructions.

It's important to make the right choice about who or what we follow in life. Simply following our desires and feelings, which often change, can leave us feeling unsatisfied. Jesus invites each and every one of us to make following him our most important priority.

Wednesday 2nd February 2022

We follow Jesus whenever we are kind, try to make peace, and make others feel welcome. Choosing to follow him is not always easy but it really does guide and help our families to keep growing in wisdom and love.

Enjoy a very special time together this evening, hearing your child's thoughts about this Sunday's Gospel and this Wednesday's word, which is FOLLOW.

THE GOSPEL IN CHURCH Sunday 6th February 2022

When Jesus had finished teaching by the lakeside he said to Simon Peter, "Sail out into deep water and let down your nets." "Master," Simon Peter replied, "we worked hard all night long and caught nothing, but if you say so, I will let down the nets." And when he and his companions had done this they netted such a huge number of fish that their nets began to tear and they filled their two boats to sinking point. When Simon Peter saw this he fell at the knees of Jesus saying, "Leave me, Lord; I am a sinful man." For he and all his companions were completely overcome by the catch they had made. But Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Do not be afraid; from now on it is people you will catch." Then, bringing their boats back to land, they left everything and followed him.

Adapted from Luke 5:1-11
The 5th Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year C

Everyone can learn more about this Gospel in Church - all are warmly invited.

"To follow Jesus means to share his love for every human being."

Pope Francis

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus promised the fishermen that, if they followed him, they would bring home more than fish: they would bring people back to God. By following Jesus, we too can help others to know and love God - to find the happiness which comes from knowing and following Jesus.

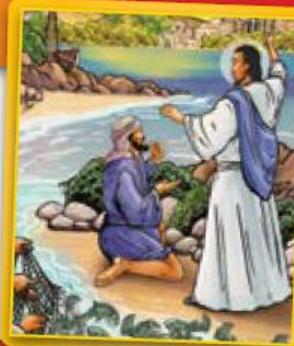

1 Our Special Time Together

Enjoy reading the Gospel overleaf (or below for younger children)

After working all night the fishermen had caught nothing. So Jesus said to Peter and his friends, "Sail out into deep water and let down your nets." They did as Jesus said and caught so many fish that their nets began to burst. Peter and his friends were amazed by the catch. Then Jesus said, "From now on you will be fishers of people." So Peter and the fishermen left everything and followed him.

What did Peter and the fishermen leave everything to do? Which word or words stood out for you in this Sunday's Gospel, and why? Look at the Sunday Gospel picture opposite. What does it make you think about?

2 Wednesday's Word is ...

FOLLOW

3 Loving God & Each Other

Through the miraculous catch, Peter saw Jesus in a new light. Peter's humility made him fit to be a follower of Jesus and he went on to discover his true purpose in life.

Ask your child if they know what 'to follow someone' means. Who impresses them? Who sets them a good example which they would like to follow? How has that person made things better for them, for someone else or for a community? It may help your child if you can talk about a person whose example you follow, or have followed.

The Church has always understood this Sunday's Gospel to be a sign of our own need to follow Jesus.

We can follow Jesus even in the simple things we do in our lives every day, and make life better for all the family and everyone around us. In this coming week, how can we follow Jesus, even in little ways? Perhaps we can: be a good listener if someone is sad and wants to share their problems with you; find regular time to pray for others; be kind and include others in our games; show others how to do the right thing and avoid what is wrong.

Dear Lord Jesus, thank you for calling us to follow you. Please help us to be your faithful followers - helping our world to become a better place. Amen.

These brilliant Year 5 pupil's have received a Headteachers Award for amazing writing!

A huge well done to this amazing Year 5 pupil for her fantastic achievement in swimming!

What's been happening at school...?

Thank you Wizard Theatre for the fantastic workshop all about 'Choices'. The children in year 6 had a fantastic time and learnt lots about the different life choices they can make.

Year 5 are really enjoying our new R.E. topic: Inspirational People. This week, we learned about Saint Josephine Bakhita. We imagined that we were interviewing her, discussing different times of her incredible life. We will try to live out her values: being kind and forgiving. :)

Nursery enjoyed a Teddy Bears' Picnic!

Year 1 visited St Theresa's church and met Fr. Richard. The children looked at the different parts of the church and found out more about the sacrament of baptism.

Year 3 had a very interesting start to their day. An earthquake hit... They then spent the rest of the morning writing some superb descriptive scenes!

Our Faith Ambassadors had a fantastic time at the #GodWhoSpeaks Scripture Festival St Albans Cathedral today. We took part in a Justice Workshop, explored the Tents of Encounter, learnt new songs and saw some incredible artwork! Thank you to Salvatorian College for lending us their minibus.

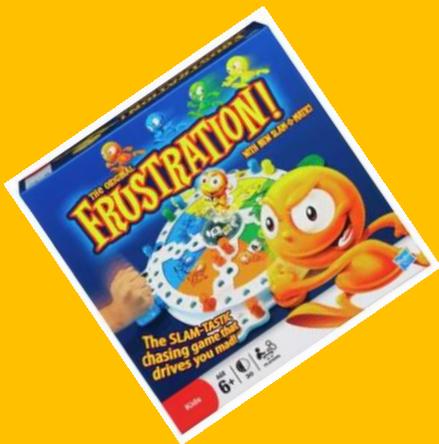

Unwanted Games and Toys Needed!

If you have any unwanted toys and games that are still in good condition (with all the pieces and not broken in any way), we would love to take them for our Stars breakfast and after school club. Things like chess, snakes and ladders, Ludo, Connect 4 or any age-appropriate games. Also, cars, toy garages, dolls, dolls house, small toy animals, happy land world, Lego and Duplo would be a great and much appreciated addition to what we currently have.

If there are any games and toys you can donate to the school please drop them off at the School Office.

Thank you.

10 Top Tips for Respect Online: INSPIRING CHILDREN TO BUILD A BETTER DIGITAL WORLD

Our ability to communicate with anyone in the world, at any time, via the internet has grown at breakneck speed. For teachers and parents, it can feel impossible to keep up. Worrying about our young people is understandable, and not unjustified: in 2020, for example, one in five 10- to 15-year-olds experienced bullying online. Our tips highlight ways that adults can support young people's positive online behaviours: by adopting and following 'netiquette', we can show them how to avoid getting into difficulty as they learn to negotiate the continually evolving digital landscape.

WHAT IS NETIQUETTE?

Just like etiquette is a set of rules which guides and governs our interactions with others in everyday life, netiquette – etiquette on the net – is the framework which helps inform how we communicate with people online. The rules of engagement often aren't the same as a face-to-face meeting, so it's important that we can accurately 'read' situations in the digital world and know how to act appropriately.

1 ACCEPT DIFFERENT RULES

A lot of our interaction with others is helped by non-verbal signals like body language and facial expressions. Online, of course, many of these clues are missing. Talk to your child about why this makes misunderstandings more likely to occur in the digital world and why keeping in mind that online communication is a very different process can help to prevent difficulties from arising.

2 PRESS 'PAUSE'

It's so easy to do things quickly online that most people (adults included) habitually send or respond to messages without considering the consequences. Pushing 'the pause button' buys a young person some time while they ponder the golden rule: "Would I still say this if the other person was right front of me?" You could practise this with your child on some made-up tricky situations.

3 THE INTERNET IS ADDICTIVE

Apps and sites use sophisticated algorithms and clever marketing to keep us engaged, while notifications on our devices are designed to draw us back in. It's no wonder that people continually return to the digital world, sometimes spending long periods of time there. You and your child could trial turning off notifications on certain apps and instead agree a time to check for updates manually.

4 BEWARE THE DARK SIDE

Getting a hurtful or unhelpful comment on social media or in a group chat can make the recipient feel publicly shamed. That's painful for anyone – but especially for a young person whose status in a group is integral to their sense of identity. Encourage your child to think about the best and safest way to send a message: for example, doing it as a private message rather than a public post.

5 HARMFUL INTERACTIONS

Unfortunately, it's very easy to send a hurtful message or to spread gossip and rumours online. We all know this happens regularly. Not having to deal with actually seeing the other person's distress usually doesn't help people to make a positive decision in the moment. It's important that trusted adults help children to visualise the potential consequences and have empathy for others.

Meet Our Expert

Dr Carole Francis-Smith is an experienced counselling psychologist who, through her research, specialises in promoting safe and ethical online communications. She consults with businesses and organisations to support positive and effective communication online, often by considering some of the more hidden aspects of the mediums.

6 APPRECIATE DIFFERENCES

We're all built differently; some people are simply more emotionally sensitive than others. Young people can be particularly affected by negative online communication, such as group shaming. Even a single message (which might seem trivial at face value) can cause deep anguish. Trusted adults should be prepared to be patient and listen to any difficulties their child might have had online.

7 ACCENTUATED ANXIETY

Young people's online lives create a lot of anxiety. Messages go into a 'black hole' until someone responds, there are more reasons to compare ourselves negatively, and social media can make us feel like we're missing out. Encourage activities such as sports and hobbies to balance this out, and remember that merely blocking out thoughts (by gaming, for instance) isn't the same as relaxation.

8 PRO-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR

A huge positive for the internet is how it helps people to feel connected and makes being kind and helpful easy to spread. When young people get involved in pro-social behaviours online, it creates a positive feedback loop which makes them feel good. Show your child examples of when you've done or said something positive online, and praise and encourage them when they do the same.

9 BE A GOOD ROLE MODEL

One of the best things we can do as trusted adults is to role model positive online behaviour. Just letting your child see that you know when it's time to put your phone away and do something more productive can set a strong example. Some families set aside particular times of the week (such as mealtimes or a family walk) where digital devices aren't allowed and conversation takes precedence.

10 SHOW COMPASSION

Mistakes can feel much bigger online, because they're so public. If a young person does or says something regrettable on the internet, it's important to support them to forgive themselves, learn any lessons and move forward positively. Even as adults, we can often stumble when learning how things work in the fast-moving digital world, so it's important to have compassion for ourselves, too.
