THE GOD WHO SPEAKS - YEAR OF THE WORD 2020 - SUNDAY MEDITATIONS, 5th Sunday of Easter

Meditate: During this lockdown we have been confined to our homes, no matter how modest or luxurious. Our home is a place we feel safe in, a space we can rest and relax. However, our true home is heaven, St. Paul tells us, it is there we will rest. All our life is preparation for that place of security and peace where God waits for us.

Act: At this time of uncertainty, all of us know people who are troubled, whose trust in life wavers. Make contact with them and encourage them to put their confidence in God, who calls us to follow him.

Pope Francis calling for world day of prayer to end the coronavirus

Pope Francis calls on believers of all religions to pray together on May 14 to ask God to rid the world of the pandemic and asks that the vaccines to be available to all persons threatened with infection.

Pope Francis has endorsed the call to "the believers of all the religious to unite together spiritually on May 14 in a day of prayer and fasting, to implore God to help humanity to overcome the coronavirus pandemic."

He also encouraged international cooperation to respond to the crisis, the emphasized the importance that scientific efforts to find a vaccine be put together in a "transparent and disinterested way" and that "the essential technologies be made universally available" so that every infected person may be able to receive the medical care needed.

The appeal calls on believers in God worldwide to hold "a day for fasting, prayers, and supplications" on May 14.

Masses for the Sick, Families, NHS Staff and Care Workers

Every Thursday at 7 o'clock, a bishop will celebrate Mass in one of the cathedrals for the sick, their carers, NHS staff and those working in social care. You can join Cardinal Vincent for a Mass at churchservices.tv/westminster

Live Catholic Mass Online

Despite the fact that we can't gather for Mass in our church we are broadcasting Masses live online. Also visit our parish Facebook page St Joseph's RC Church, Wembley and stay connected.
