SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, C

29TH MAY, 2022

THEME: Witnesses needed

On the seventh Sunday of Easter, we always read from the seventeenth chapter of John's Gospel. As Jesus prepares to return to God, he is in the midst of a long prayer for his disciples. This entire chapter is a prayer by Jesus, commending himself to the Father and expressing his care and concern for his disciples. It is a prayer for unity even though Judas is no longer among the disciples. Jesus asks his Father to seal and strengthen the disciples as they will now be the ones to carry out the work begun by Jesus. He especially asks that they not be influenced by the evil one.

MEDITATE: There is almost a sense of listening to another's conversation as we hear the proclamation of this gospel. The tenderness, intimacy, and passion we hear in Jesus' words are utterly disarming.

ACT: How well do I reflect the unity for which Jesus so passionately prayed?
