TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY, YEAR A

10TH SEPTEMBER, 2023

THEME: Care For Your Wounded Brother or Sister.

If we really are the Church, we are a community around Christ and we are brothers and sisters to one another. That means: we love one another, we accept and serve one another so much that we also have the courage to correct one another when our brother or sister errs. He or she is my concern because that person is my brother or sister. Let us pray that we may have that courage, and that our brothers and sisters may accept the help we offer to set them free.

MEDITATE: "Anything goes." In today's society, it might seem that this is sometimes true.

ACT: Determine a specific issue on which you will be more forthright in professing your faith.

SEASON OF CREATION 2023

"Let Justice and Peace Flow" [Amos 5.24]

Creator God, you created the earth as a common home for the benefit of all who inhabit it. May we truly affirm in what we say and do 'our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork'.

MASS TIMES

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.

[based on a prayer of St Alphonsus Liguori]
