Communion

Please lead from the front when coming to receive the Eucharist.

It may take a little time for us all to remember this change. So, please stay seated if there is a queue forming and you find it difficult to stand for periods.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter, regardless of the yearly cycle of readings: A, B, or C, has as a focus Jesus the Good Shepherd.

When we contemplate the meaning of God as the Shepherd, we must start with the Trinity. We must start with the eternal, immanent Trinity, Who are Being, Who are Existence, without beginning or end, without Whom no thing could exist at all. Jesus in the Gospel says, "the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again". So are we seeing here conditional love? Will the Father only love His Son if He lays down His life? Is the Father saying that He will only love His son if He, Jesus, does what His Father wants? This would point to a servile relationship. Is the bond between the Father and the Son, in the bond of the Holy Spirit, one of, "do what I say to receive my love?" Absolutely not. I hear you all cheering!

We do need to start with the Trinity, well everything starts with Them, to approach the term Shepherd and its fundamental significance for us. God the Father eternally gives all He is to His Son. Everything the Son is, all He has heard, all His powers, majesty, and humility He has learnt from His Father; Jesus tells the disciples how He shares with them everything He has heard from His Father (Jn 15:15). Eternally the Father teaches, shepherds His Son after His own Heart. And the divine Shepherd gives all for the Other. The Father gives all for His Son, teaches His Son to be a True Shepherd, and the Son in return gives all to His Father, the Son is eternally begotten as the Son Shepherd. The trust between Father and Son is so perfect, so glorious, that They permit One to shepherd the Other, in the bond of the Spirit.

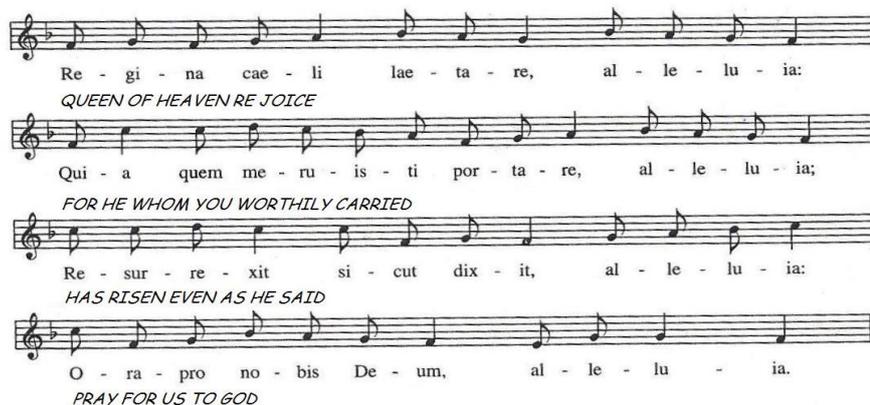

So the eternal Son is born in time, in history, incarnate of the Blessed Ever-Virgin Mary. And as He is the eternal Son in the flesh, He is also the eternal Shepherd, in Whom all authority in heaven and on earth has been given (Mt 28:18), now come to His universe where He is given a flock for whom He will give all. At Easter we essentially celebrate Jesus, the Good Shepherd, giving His all, sacrificing Himself for us, the Lamb of God, that in His Resurrection we may receive His risen power, cascading into us by the Spirit, for the eternal Good Shepherd has taken away the division of sin, death, and gone before us.

Saint Peter in the Gospel, now no more denying Jesus, has become a shepherd, filled with the Spirit. Saint Peter will lay his life down, like the Good Shepherd, Jesus, to teach others the Faith. We see that to become a shepherd is of the essence of being a human person, for the Father and the Son are Shepherds, and through the risen Son, we receive the Spirit of the Shepherd. The Church, families, and societies deeply require true shepherds. And this call to shepherd is for both sexes: Mary, our Mother, is the greatest shepherdess, for her prayers, above all humans, are the most effective in shepherding us to her Son. The Bible also names specifically Rachel, Jacob's wife, as a shepherdess. Jesus has gone ahead to heaven, He sends His Spirit to teach us, to transform us into shepherds after His own heart. How are each of us responding to our call to shepherd others to the Lord?

Priest Training Fund This Sunday is Good Shepherd Sunday and our second collection will support the Priest Training Fund. This fund pays for the priestly formation of men for the Catholic priesthood. There are currently 49 men studying at Allen Hall seminary, 13 of whom are from our own Diocese. We also have one seminarian in Valladolid and one at the Beda, presently on pastoral placement in Ruislip. There are also two on a propaedeutic year at Redemptoris Mater. Last year 3 deacons were ordained for Westminster Diocese. The Priest Training Fund also supports the ongoing enrichment and formation of our ordained priests. Your gift ensures we can provide training for these men responding to Christ's call to dedicate their lives to serve God's people. Please be as generous as you can. Please also pray for vocations and for all our priests. If you do not have a donation envelope, plenty are still available at the back of the church. You can use the QR code to make your donation online or visit www.rcdow.org.uk/donations. Thank you for your generosity.

Easter Offering Envelopes are available at the back of the church. This is your Easter gift to the parish and is not taxed by the Diocese, so if you are going away please do use it. Thank you for your kindness, thoughtfulness and generosity throughout the year.

Planned Giving Envelopes 2024/2025 for existing users are available for collection in the Repository, and parish office when it is open. If you would like to have a set of planned giving envelopes for the new tax year, please let the parish office know. However, standing orders are the easiest way to contribute to the parish. Both planned giving envelopes and standing orders can allow your contributions to be Gift Aided. This means that the parish can claim an extra 25p for every £1 you give. Details can be found at:
