Hymn to Our Lady of Willesden:

Lady all the world is thine
every man can call thee 'mine',
Yet amongst us is thy shrine,
of thy love to us a sign.

Lovely lady without stain,
Wide as heaven is thy reign.
Yet amongst us didst thou deign,
Have a house to our sweet gain.

Dwell again amongst us here,
let us hold thy image dear.
Hold thy son in loving fear,
whilst his mother we revere.

Till we all in blissful sight,
having fought the Christian fight
see thee standing at his right glorying in endless light.
