Hymn:

For all the saints who from their labours rest,
who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy | name, O Jesus, be forever blest. Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light. Alleluia!

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold, fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
and | win with them the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine,
we feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet | all are one in thee, for all are thine. Alleluia!

And when the fight is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
and | hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia!

The golden evening brightens in the west;
soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
sweet is the calm of paradise the blest. Alleluia!

But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
the | saints triumphant rise in bright array;
the | King of glory passes on his way. Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
through | gates of pearl streams in the countless host, singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Alleluia! (William Walsham How)
