CHOIR NOTICE:
The current restrictions still don't allow for congregational singing, but choirs, both professional and amateur, may rehearse and sing, while observing the necessary rules. These rules include maintaining social distancing, not gathering in groups of more than 6 unless in a bubble or household (which means arriving and leaving separately, and not lingering), and should not include those aged 70 years or over or who have been shielding. Singing when there is a congregation should be limited to a small, planned group (which means RVSPs are required in advance, no 'ad hoc' attendance), who face away from, or are sufficiently distanced from everyone else, as well as from each other. To all members of the Senior Choir, Schola, and parents of the Children's choir I ask that you keep an eye on your emails/texts, remembering to respond as requested. This will tell you the way forward for us. We're moving very slowly and have already had to abandon the calendar issued at the start of September. Nonetheless, at the 11.30am Live Streamed mass we have started to include a 'small group' choir that observes all the above restrictions, though for the moment there is no congregation at that mass. This small group consists principally of the very few remaining Choristers (Children's choir - Probationers may join too if they wish), and members of the adult Schola. The Senior Choir has not, as yet, been asked to join, principally for their safety in line with the restrictions, and the current absence of congregational singing, but please know that we are still thinking of you. This small group has been working on learning new music, with the use of learn-at-home videos on Youtube, and last Sunday we met for a practice after the 11.30am mass for the first time. This situation is not likely to change for the remainder of the year, but that there is music at the mass again is a source of joy, even if these steps are slow and for now cautious. Thanks, Simon.

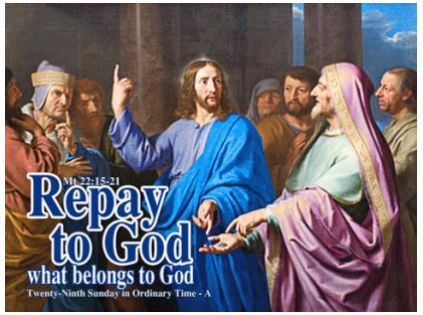
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time



"Lord, because you have made me, I owe you the whole of my love; because you have redeemed me, I owe you the whole of myself; because you have promised so much, I owe you all my being. Moreover, I owe you as much more love than myself as you are greater than I, for whom you gave yourself and to whom you promised yourself. I pray you, Lord, make me taste by love what I taste by knowledge; let me know by love what I know by understanding. I owe you more than my whole self, but I have no more, and by myself I cannot render the whole of it to you. Draw me to you, Lord, in the fullness of love. I am wholly yours by creation; make me all yours, too, in love." (Prayer of Anselm, 1033-1109 AD)

Second Collection at all masses this weekend for the work of Missio,

November, Month of the Holy Souls Despite all it's trials, it's amazing how fast the year passes. We will soon be entering the November, the Month of the Holy Souls, at time when we make an extra special remembrance of our dear ones gone before us. I suspect that there will be no public cemetery masses this November, and no large gatherings for Grave Blessings. However, the practice that we introduced locally 2 years ago will come into it's own this year: we will once again provide you with prayer texts so that as a family group you can make your visits to the resting places of your loved ones. On the weekend of the 31st October/ 1st November you are invited to bring containers of water to Mass so that they can be blessed and used in this devotion (we cannot make a large container available at this time so we will bless your bottles of water at the end of Mass).
NOVEMBER DEAD LISTS are available at the back of Church, for you to complete, and return to church or the Presbytery. The enclosed offerings will provide stipends for masses to be said daily in November, and then in the coming year for all named.
ALL SOULS DAY REQUIEMS (Nov. 2nd) will be offered at 8am, 10am, 12.45pm (Latin) and 7pm.

Coming to a Weekend Mass? Reserve a place using the form at the back of the Shrine Church OR online at: parish.rcdow.org.uk/willesden
